Old Testament Reading 2 Samuel 7:4-13

⁴ But that same night the word of the Lord came to Nathan, ⁵
"Go and tell my servant David, 'Thus says the Lord: Would you build me a house to dwell in?' ⁶ I have not lived in a house since the day I brought up the people of Israel from Egypt to this day, but I have been moving about in a tent for my dwelling. ⁷ In all places where I have moved with all the people of Israel, did I speak a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, saying, “Why have you not built me a house of cedar?” ⁸ Now, therefore, thus you shall say to my servant David, “Thus says the Lord of hosts, I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, that you should be prince over my people Israel. ⁹ And I have been with you wherever you went and have cut off all your enemies from before you. And I will make for you a great name, like the name of the great ones of the earth. ¹⁰ And I will appoint a place for my people Israel and will plant them, so that they may dwell in their own place and be disturbed no more. And violent men shall afflict them no more, as formerly, ¹¹ from the time that I appointed judges over my people Israel. And I will give you rest from all your enemies. Moreover, the Lord declares to you that the Lord will make you a house. ¹² When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring after you, who shall come from your body, and I will establish his kingdom. ¹³ He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.

L This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Epistle

Revelation 21:1-5

¹ Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. ² And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. ³ And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “Behold, the dwelling place of God is with man. He will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. ⁴ He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away.” ⁵ And he who was seated on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true."

L This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Holy Gospel (please stand)

Luke 19:1-10

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, the 19th chapter

C Glory to Thee, O Lord.

¹ [Jesus] entered Jericho and was passing through. ² And behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector and was rich. ³ And he was seeking to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was small in stature. ⁴ So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was about to pass that way. ⁵ And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today." ⁶ So he hurried and came down and received him joyfully. ⁷ And when they saw it, they all grumbled, "He has gone in to be the guest of a man who is a sinner." ⁸ And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor. And if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I restore it fourfold." ⁹ And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham. ¹⁰ For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to Thee, O Christ.

Common Responsory

P Forever, O Lord, Your Word is firmly set in the heavens.

C Lord, I love the habitation of Your house and the place where Your glory dwells.

P Blessed are those who hear the Word of God and keep it.

C Lord, I love the habitation of Your house and the place where Your glory dwells.

P Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

C Lord, I love the habitation of Your house and the place where Your glory dwells.

Anniversary Hymn written by Rev. Paul D. Doellinger

We thank You God our Father, for a hundred years of grace;
For coming here to worship, in this most sacred place.
This church named after St. Paul, is to our hearts so dear
Because the news of Jesus is brought unto us here.

For all these years the Message of Christ has been proclaimed,
And children have been baptized in Your most holy name.
We've knelt, Lord, by Your altar and taken wine and bread,
By this Your holy Supper our souls here have been fed.

Lord now that we're forgiven, we too can take Your love
And share it with our neighbor, Your grace, Lord, from above.
Then as we leave this building, we go back to the world
With peace and joy within us because our souls are healed.

Our hearts now look ahead Lord, to unseen years to come,
And wonder what will happen as Your will still is done.
Help us to catch the vision of what is yet to do,
That trusting in Your goodness we fix our eyes on You.

(please stand)

We thank You Christ our Savior, for giving us Your love,
We thank You God the Father, And Spirit from above.
O Trinity most holy, to You we bend the knee,
And worship here before You, so all the world may see.

Sermon

Apostles' Creed (please stand)

All I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

P Blessed Lord, You have caused all Holy Scriptures to be written for our learning. Grant that we may so hear them, read, mark, learn and take them to heart that, by the patience and comfort of Your holy Word, we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Welcome!

Thank you for being a part of our special celebration today!
Whether you are a new member, a current member,
a former member, or a guest,
we are so happy you chose to celebrate with us today.
We pray that God continue to bless you as He has blessed the ministry at St. Paul's for the past 100 years!

Out of thanksgiving and praise for the Lord's blessings to St. Paul's throughout 100 years of ministry, the offering taken during this afternoon's service will go towards supporting the construction of Lutheran churches and schools in Africa. Across Africa, congregations are usually able to build the four walls of their churches and schools using local materials like stones, wood, or baked mud bricks. The roofing is often an expense that is out of reach. As a result, structures might be left open to the sun (and rain) or topped with thatch roofs that require constant maintenance and repair. This project provides durable tin sheets to finish Lutheran church roofs. Together the local Lutheran church and the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod provide a dry and long-lasting place for God to come to His people in the Word and the Sacraments. The cost for one such roof is around $200.
